John's Imigration Story

John Olson emigrated from Stavanger, Norway in 1885. John was a sailor and a fisherman in Norway. At that time Norway was one of the poorest countries in the world and living conditions were bad. Food (biscuits) served while sailing was wormy.

John left Norway without permission, sailing to New York. In New York there were a lot of crooks that would kidnap women, so John decided to take the train west and settled in Kendall County, Illinois. At that time he worked for an English farmer.

John and Bertha moved from Illinois to a farm that was between Frost and Rake Minnesota between 1914.
